H.J. BAKER & BRO. PROMOTES NEW PLANT MANAGER IN FORT SMITH

WESTPORT, CT (August 17, 2007) – H.J. Baker & Bro., Inc. recently announced that Norman Johnson has been promoted to Plant Manager at their Fort Smith, Arkansas facility. He is replacing Tom Scott who will be retiring at the end of the year. Mr. Johnson was previously the Assistant Plant Manager.

Mr. Johnson has more than 20 years experience in manufacturing operations and facilities maintenance. Most recently he was Operations Manager for 3D Corp Solutions in Danville, Arkansas; where he was responsible for the daily operation of their animal protein facility.

The Fort Smith plant is part of H.J. Baker's Feed Division and manufactures PRO-PAK.

Christopher Smith, President and CEO of H.J. Baker, "We are very pleased to promote Norm Johnson to Plant Manager of our Fort Smith location. He will continue our commitment to providing products of the highest quality and value to our customers."

As an international manufacturer, importer, exporter and sales agent, H.J. Baker & Bro. mobilizes resources throughout the world. The company's strategically located processing plants, offices and warehouses create a super-efficient pipeline for the vital commodities and products that it sources, manufactures, and markets.

H.J. Baker is highly qualified in materials handling, storage, and transportation. H.J. Baker pays personal attention to every aspect of the operation. Each phase of its organization is operated with maximum efficiency to ensure customer satisfaction.
